Taking the I-70 this time of year is a death wish. Weather changes in an instant and ice fog kills. Take the 40 to NM.

I booked my flight when I heard the "will be wild" call to arms. I'm in Los Angeles and will see you there. If things go south I may not be able to fly back. I'll have to stay in Virginia or environs for the punishing and may need a ride back.

You might consider a more southern route, to avoid the rockies, especially in the winter time.

Either way, remind LA pedes to bring their winter gear, the rest of the country is pretty cold right now.

Local CO pede here, roads will be good

Reduced oxygen (from coast to rockies) may make drivers tired/sleepy. Also the weather in Colorado can change rapidly, bad weather can reduce visibility and potentially make road surfaces slippery.

This is awesome. Need communication in case you are showing late at a meetup point or other issues (Stragglers that sleep in at the hotel, etc).

Other than that, looks beautiful!

You seem freaked out?

Scared yet? I just check the flights....lots with zero seats....unusual with a pandemic, on a Tuesday, in January.

2020 is now over. We are going to end 1984 next.
